Dynamic Depth Cues: Optimizing Multi-Layer Parallax Mapping Pipelines within RPG Maker MV/MZ

<http://jurnal.kdi.or.id/index.php/bt>

August 2025

Published a research paper in Bit-Tech Journal as the first author. The study introduces a custom five-layer parallax mapping pipeline optimized for RPG Maker's PIXI.js-based renderer. The proposed system features grouped texture loading and dynamic layer visibility, successfully improving perceived depth and spatial realism by 38% while maintaining stable FPS on low-end hardware. 85% of users preferred the parallax-enhanced visuals
